Participation and registration

Fees. The conference registration fee is £20. This includes refreshments and a contribution to the cost of the conference facilities and other expenses. It does not include accommodation and conference meals. The participants are asked to provide for their own accommodation. There will be a conference dinner on the night of the first day (£30.00) and a conference lunch at the end of sessions on the second day (£12.00).

Registration. To take part in the conference, please complete the registration form overleaf and send it to the address indicated by March 30 at the latest. (There will be a surcharge of £10 for late bookings.) Once your booking is received, we shall send you further practical information.

Postgraduate student bursaries. There is a limited amount of money available for postgraduate bursaries offering a reduction of the conference fee for up to 50% and some assistance to travel costs and accommodation where appropriate. If you are a postgraduate student and wish to be considered for this, please get in touch with Inna Kupreeva (inna.kupreeva@ed.ac.uk) as soon as possible. Your application needs to be accompanied by a supporting statement from your supervisor with details about any financial support from your own University or from other sources.

There will be a possibility for poster presentations by postgraduate students. Those postgraduate students who wish to present a poster during the conference should get in touch with the organisers by March 30.

For details of booking and accommodation, see below. For further information please contact Dory Scaltsas (scaltsas@ed.ac.uk) or Inna Kupreeva (inna.kupreeva@ed.ac.uk).
